April 2013

Annual Community Yard Sale

Saturday, May 4th from 8:00 AM to 2:00 PM

Wickham Forest will post signs and place an advertisement in the local newspaper.

Covenant Violations

I was recently questioned about how violations of the HOA covenants are assessed. As all homeowners and renters are members of the Association, I felt it would be best to present that answer in the newsletter, so that everyone has the same information.

The condition of our community is very important in maintaining the value of all of our homes. It is not the intention or purpose of the board to indiscriminately fine residents for violations to the agreed upon covenants. I'm sure most residents purchased a home here because Wickham Forest is one of the most desirable neighborhoods in Melbourne. Unlike many deed restricted communities, we do not hire an outside management company to actively seek out and enforce the covenants. Ours is an all volunteer board comprised of dedicated residents.

Any resident lodging a complaint must include their name and address as an indication of sincere concern for our neighborhood. The identify of the homeowner who reported the violation is kept confidential and not released to the homeowner. Anonymous complaints will not be entertained by the board.

Of course, if in the course of our daily activities violations are noticed, they will be brought to the attention of the homeowner.

Violations are verified by at least one other board member before a letter is sent indicating the situation to the homeowner.

Parking in Wickham Forest

Some homeowners may wonder why parking on the streets and/or lawns is not allowed. Parking on the streets and/or lawns has been such a problem in the past, creating safety issues for the entire neighborhood. There have been situations where ambulances, fire trucks, and/or garbage trucks have had trouble getting past cars parked in the street when on route. That is a major reason why the board has taken such a stringent viewpoint on parking violations. While a vehicle parked on the grass doesn't impede traffic, it is listed as a violation under our parking covenants and therefore must be enforced as stringently as vehicles parked on the street. The board tries to use common-sense when enforcing parking violations, as sometimes a homeowner must use the street to park cars temporarily. Vehicles should never be parked on the lawn.

It is not the desire of the board to fine homeowners - neither the homeowner or the board enjoy the process. The board would much rather focus on maintaining common property and working together with homeowners to try and keep our neighborhood beautiful and safe. In the event a homeowner is fined for a parking violation, the fines cannot be removed by the board without direction from the appeals committee. Please know that lack of action by the homeowner to address any fines is not beneficial to the homeowner; unpaid fines accrue interest just as unpaid yearly dues accrue interest. If you have received a fine which you feel is unjustified, you certainly have the right to contact the appeals committee at appeals@wickhamforest.com. They will review the matter and the board will abide by whatever decision the committee determines. No board member is allowed to be part of the appeals committee.

For homeowners with multiple vehicles occupying the driveway, juggling vehicles to keep them off the street is probably not easy. Other homeowners in similar situations have widened their driveways to alleviate this problem. If you decide to widen your driveway, please obtain approval from the ARC before beginning.

PET CARE

When walking your dog, remember to pick up the waste and dispose of it properly. Leaving the waste on the ground increases public health risks by allowing harmful bacteria and nutrients to wash into the storm drains.

Besides being inconsiderate to your neighbors, it is a violation of Melbourne Ordinance. Additionally, the Wickham Forest 2010 Covenants identifies failure to clean up after you pet as an infraction that can be assessed a fine of $50 per violation if you are observed (Section 7.5c).

Identity Theft and Tax Season

<http://sa18.state.fl.us/>

It's that most wonderful time of the year-Income Tax Season! This year, the Internal Revenue Service is noting a significant increase in enterprising criminals who are actively running several scams to try and divest you of your tax returns. The IRS is reporting a growing number of cases of identity theft in tax filings and returns. They now have more than 3,000 agents dedicated to these cases. Once a criminal has stolen key pieces of your personal information, such as your social security number or your tax payer identification number, any one of a number of frauds may occur. The bottom line is if a scam artist files for a tax refund using your identity, you could experience a delayed refund that takes several years to clear up. The IRS suggests carefully protecting personal information, such as your social security number, never giving it out over the phone and giving it to a business only when a law requires it. If you suspect your identity has been stolen, you can contact the IRS Identity Protection Specialized Unit at 800-908-4490, extension 245. Taxpayers looking for additional information can also consult the special identity protection page on IRS.gov.

You Can Make Your Neighborhood a Better Place

As a member of our community, there are plenty of ways to connect with your neighbors and add value to our neighborhood. Here are just a few ideas that were recently shared.

- Tutor or mentor children or teens.
- Lend a helping hand. Consider offering your professional expertise to neighbors; they are likely to reciprocate
- Help to build or repair homes for families in need. Perhaps you have a neighbor who needs help with mowing or other small household chores. Volunteering can help boost spirits.
- Serve as a member of a Community Emergency Response Team.
- Join an environmental improvement project, such as a local park or beach clean up.
- Deliver meals to elderly or ill residents
- Assist local non-profit organizations by fund raising, recruiting volunteers, serving on boards or contributing other skills
- Organize community picnics or block parties to be better acquainted with your neighbors
- Coordinate neighborhood restoration projects or encourage businesses to adopt a street to maintain.
- Work with local law enforcement organizations to establish a community policing team.
- Involve the entire family. Seek out ways to get your children or grandchildren involved in the community. A good way for them to meet others their own age outside school is through local parks and recreations programs. Call City of Melbourne Leisure Services 321-255-4608 or check online at www.melbourneflorida.org/leisure. There is a wealth of activities for everyone – pre-school, youth, teens, and adults.
